PASTORS' PERSPECTIVE

Dear GCLC family,

"... The Lord your God will be with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9) was the assurance Yahweh gave to the new leader in Israel.

The new leader had almost 40 years of unique experience of being a faithful servant of Moses. He followed him everywhere to do his bidding. He cherished God's worship so much that he chose to remain in the tabernacle.

His life narrative was remarkable: he went from being a slave to becoming a free man overnight because of the Blood of the Paschal Lamb; he then worked as a servant and an army fighter, leading his country to victory over the Amalekites. He even saw himself as one of the spies Moses dispatched to survey the area. He brought Moses a good report because he was a man of faith and a worshipper of Yahweh, as opposed to the ten others who brought Moses a bad report that discouraged the majority and turned their eleven day journey into a 40-day arduous journey in the wilderness.

Such was his background before we see him in Joshua chapter one.

God knew the mental and spiritual make-up of Joshua. No matter how much experience and expertise you may have in the world, you will always feel inadequate and ill-equipped for the task God assigns you. This is probably the experience of most people doing God's work.

Not only did God give Joshua the assignment, but God also assured him of His ever-abiding presence, which was more than enough to qualify him for the position. Joshua had to deal with 31 kings in Canaan, as opposed to Moses' single, powerful king in Egypt. (Chp12)

For God, His purpose and intentions must come to pass. He found Joshua to be the right choice to do the work. When we become God's choice for a specific job, be rest assured that all of Heaven will back you up to complete the job in victory. God's assurance that He would accompany Joshua wherever he was required to go simply serves to highlight the purpose of the plan—to ensure that Joshua was successful in his work so that God would ultimately gain the glory.

Dear stakeholders of GCLC, do not be weary in doing what needs to be done as the Almighty God is with you to accomplish His purposes through you for His glory!

Inherit, Influence and Impact for your Inheritance is certain!!!

Joyfully serving you,
Pastors Robert and Pat Jeyaraj

I travel to Gurgaon from Faridabad every day for work. This route is scenic, yet a dangerous drive.

On June 12, 2022, while on my way to work, I met with an accident that could have been life threatening. Knowing that the minimum speed of each rushing vehicle behind me was roughly 90–100 kmph, I was fortunate to escape the incident with only a broken wrist.

My good Lord was with me throughout - from the scene of the accident until the day I was released from the hospital, He held me as I carried my broken wrist close to my chest.

I feel the miracles and blessings that God has brought into my life far outnumber the breaths I have ever taken. And, these are new every morning, beyond imagination and some beyond comprehension.

A special thank you to my mom-Sudha Rao who had been a pillar of support throughout this time. Amal and Vignesh, thank you for being the amazing brothers you are! GCLC, I appreciate your ongoing prayers for my healing and for the promise from 1 Peter 5:10.

Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary to those celebrating their special days.

My God shall supply all my needs!

Rachel Koshy

“And My God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in Glory by Christ Jesus.” Philippians 4:19

It's been 34 years since we first came to Delhi. By God's grace, we have had the privilege of living in our own house for the last 24 years. It truly is nothing short of a miracle. God provided for us in response to our prayers.

My husband (Koshy) and I had to move and rent quite a few houses when we first arrived in Delhi. I was quite eager for us to have our own home because shifting every now and then was rather exhausting. I therefore started to fast and pray. One day, while praying, the Holy Spirit prompted me to pray for the apartment that was next door to the one we were renting.

A few days later a broker approached my husband and urged him to purchase the flat but he denied this opportunity saying we didn't have the money. My husband then mentioned this interaction to me and I continued to fast and pray in secret. The broker again approached my husband and persuaded him to meet the owner of the flat while also informing us that we may make the payment whenever we were able to.

Around this time, one of Koshy's projects got sanctioned and we received the exact amount needed for the advance deposit for the flat.

By God's grace, on 30th December, 2000 we shifted into our forever home and since then God has been the unseen guest at every meal and the silent listener to every conversation. All Glory to God!

Your contributions towards the 40th anniversary celebrations can be made under GCLC general fund (Do remember to mention “40th anniversary celebration” on the envelope).
