PASTORS' PERSPECTIVE

Dear Church family,

Resurrection greetings to each of you!

This season holds great significance in the Christian calendar, as we reflect on the suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. However, for a child of God, the essence of faith is not limited to seasons but is found in a daily walk with Him. Someone once said, 'Christian can experience the blessings of Christmas, Good Friday, and Easter at all times.'

During the Lenten season, many devout believers engage in fasting and intercessory prayer. Where fasting is not observed, chain prayers are encouraged so that every believer dedicates specific time to prayer. Regardless of the form, one truth remains—prayers offered in faith are always heard and answered by God.

Our theme for April is from Mark 11:24, where Jesus reminds His disciples to pray with faith, believing that they have already received what they ask for. Prayer is powerful—it moves mountains and brings forth God's answers when we pray with unwavering trust.

Prayer is not meant to be a hurried ritual or a last resort in times of need. Instead, it is a way of life—remaining in communion with God 24/7. As Ephesians 6 teaches us, prayer is part of the spiritual armor in our battle against the forces of darkness. Paul also exhorts the Thessalonian church to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thessalonians 5:17) because persistent prayer aligns us with God's will and strengthens us for the challenges ahead.

Jesus exemplified a life of prayer, constantly seeking the Father's will. He taught that faith-filled prayers have the power to move mountains. How much more, then, can we receive from God when we approach Him in faith?

Let's embrace the power of prayer in our daily lives! There is so much to receive from God—so step into the realm of prayer and witness His mighty hand at work in your life.

Wishing you all a joyful and victorious Resurrection season!

Joyfully serving you,
Pastors Robert and Patricia Jeyaraj

KNOW YOUR LEADER

African Fellowship

— Ella Kouao

Meet Ella Kouao—born and brought up in the lively city of Abidjan, the economic capital of Côte d'Ivoire (or Ivory Coast, for the English speakers). Her early years were filled with the colors and culture of West Africa, giving her a love for people and community.

In 2011, Ella found herself in Mumbai, pursuing her MBA and working with Datamatics, a multinational company. That season brought lots of learning, growth—and yes, she was single at the time!

Ella has been a part of GCLC along with her husband Kouao Narcisse since 2013, faithfully growing and serving in the fellowship. She also works at her country's Embassy in Delhi, where she continues to serve with dedication.

Though raised in a Catholic home, Ella encountered Jesus personally at a young age. Her mother came to faith through an uncle who was part of the Assemblies of God, and it wasn't long before Ella found herself in Sunday School in Class 2. Since then, she's held on tightly to her Everlasting God, through every chapter of life.

In 2023, Ella stepped up to lead the African Fellowship after Sister Ruth moved back home. While the group used to have around 30 members before the pandemic, today about 10 faithful ones continue to gather—by God's grace and Ella's steady encouragement.

Outside of all this, Ella enjoys reading and music, and her life is full of quiet joy and God's blessings.

She's also a proud and grateful mom to three lovely children:

Shalom Favor-Elnar and Joy Honor-Elnar, both born in India.

and Justus Faith-Elnar, her youngest, born in Côte d'Ivoire and now 4 years old.

Whether in church, at work, or among friends, Ella brings warmth, strength, and a sincere heart that points others toward Jesus.

From ritual to relationship: my journey with Jesus and prayer

Hema Gopindrarajan

I first heard about Jesus at the Christian school I attended. At the time, prayer was more of a routine—something I did, mostly focused on my own needs. It wasn't until I saw people genuinely asking others, "How can I pray for you?" that something stirred in me. That kind of love and intentional care shifted my understanding of what prayer could be.

Though I come from a different religious background, my mother was the first in our family to come to know the Lord. Her faith left a deep impression on me. I saw how she leaned on Jesus for strength and peace, and it made me long to know Him for myself. Over time, I came to realize that Jesus wasn't just a figure from Bible stories—He was real, present, and deeply personal.

As my faith grew, so did my prayers. I began to find joy in praying for others, witnessing God's hand at work not only in their lives but in mine as well. Prayer became more than just requests—it became a way of loving, of connecting, and of surrendering to God's will.

Knowing Jesus has completely transformed my heart. His love has carried me, taught me, and drawn me closer each day. And for that, I am forever grateful.

Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary to those celebrating their special days.
